The delay observed is in respect of trials of (1) Gujja Kanda, (2) Gurunadu + 10 others in the Kolar Dt & (3) Krishna Heggade in the Shimoga Dt. 43 The delay in the first case is explained to be due to the non-appearance of certain witnesses on the dates required & to the death of the Sub-Asst. Surgeon who had previously attended the Court. 44 The case against Gurunadu & others was committed to the Sessions on 2.1.1917. They were convicted on the 11th June 1917. The delay therefore is an account of the case being posted to the month of June by the Sessions Judge & not due to the Committing Magte.

Sir,

I am directed to state that in regard to the persons surrendered ~~from~~ from Bednur for trial in your District during the half year ending 31-12-17, two Statements have been sent on 7-1-17 with different covering letters and that the following information is wanting in respect of the persons mentioned therein:—

over.

(1) Columns 5 to 8 against Krishniah Hegade have not been filled up.

(2) The period of imprisonment to which Bapu Sab and Ahmad Sab were sentenced is stated to be 3 months in the return sent with your letter no P.C. 22 Jude dt 7.1.17, while it was mentioned as 6 months in the statement received with your letter no Per 11 (Jud) dt 25/2/17. It is not clear which of the two is correct.

(3) Waddar Hanuma bin Hanuma is included in the return, though he was not surrendered.

(4) The section of the Penal Code under which Hanuma, Mohadin Sab & others (now 3 with the state) were convicted is not mentioned in column 9.

2. A revised statement, with all the above information, may kindly be arranged to be sent before the 30th instant.

With reference to your letter No.J.4254/Cts.14-17-46, dated 17th April 1918, making certain observations on the return of persons made over under the Extradition Act, for the half year ending 30th June 1917, I have the honor to invite your kind reference to para 2 of my letter No.D.Dis.13, dated 12th July 1917. regarding the disposal of the case of Mallagadu alias Venkataramadoo.

2. With regard to the trial of Vaddar Naga, referred to in para 2 of your letter, under advertence, this accused was acquitted by the Sessions Judge, Bangalore Division, on the 6th November 1917. These particulars were omitted to be entered in the above Extradition Statement, as this information was not furnished in the Extradition Statement submitted by the Assistant Commissioner and First Class Magistrate, Chikballapur Sub Division. The omission to enter the disposal of this case by the Sessions Judge, is very much regretted.

Dated 8-5-918

Sir

Referring to your order No 22 dated 30th April 1918 re the delegation the disposal of Land Revenue Appeal case on the file of this Court I beg to state that the Public Prosecutor was specially engaged in this case to conduct the prosecution. The case had to be adjourned several times as the Public Prosecutor was engaged in the Sessions. Further two of the prosecution witnesses who were undergoing imprisonment in the Central jail had to be summoned and as it was subsequently inintimated that they were ill & were not in a fit Condition to travel, they had to be examined on Commission. Lastly as several of the defence witnesses had to come from North Leinster Superiour time had to be allowed thereof. for these reasons the case had to be kept pending for a long time. It was however disposed of on the 3rd inst., the accused being convicted & sentenced to 3 months rigorous imprisonment.

I beg to remain
Sir
Your most obedient Servant

Sir,

Adverting to your letter No.J.4356/Cts.14-17 dated 27th April 1918, requesting to obtain and submit explanation of the Magistrates for the undue delay in the disposal of certain extradited persons, I have the honor to state that Guruvadu and ten others were surrendered to the Special Magistrate, Kolar Gold Fields, on the 10th November 1916, and they were committed by the said Magistrate, on 2nd January 1917 to take their trial, at the Court of Sessions, Bangalore Division. They were convicted and sentenced by the Sessions Judge on the 11th June 1917.

2. Vaddar Naga referred to in para 2 of your letter was surrendered to the Assistant Commissioner and First Class Magistrate, Chikballapur Sub Division, on 7th August 1917. The accused was tried and acquitted by the Sessions Judge on the 6th November 1917.

It will, thus, be seen that there has not been much delay in the committing Magistrates' Courts, in holding preliminary enquiries.

25 MAY 1918

From a perusal of the order sheets in the above cases it is observed that out of the two accused persons viz. Honje Konda and another, the first accused Konda was produced before this court on Extradition warrant on 11th August 1916. The commencement of the trial had to be postponed owing to the absence of the other accused, who was brought before this court on Extradition warrant on 29th September 1916. After the production of this accused the case was adjourned to 6th October 1916 and was again reposed to 18th October, as the magistrate was not likely to return to Head quarters till that day. On this day the Sub-Inspector of Arsikere Harpanahalli Taluk who had to start the case did not turn up and - again the case had to be adjourned to 2nd November 1916. The case was taken up that day and some witnesses were examined and the case was adjourned to further evidence to 17th November 1916. One witness was examined on that date and as the wife and aunt of the first accused witness for prosecution were not available as they had gone away from Chitaldrug, case was posted to 2nd December 1916. On this date the case was again resumed and some more witnesses were examined and as the Sub Assistant Surgeon who had attended on the first pw was reported to have died, and as the 1st pw's relations were not available for examination the case was again adjourned to 23rd December 1916.

on this day the District Medical officer was examined and as the other absent witnesses viz (wife and aunt of 1st pw) did not turn up the case was closed and the case committed to Sessions - These are the facts that can be gathered from the perusal of the order sheet in the case which was enquired into by Mr. T. Cholekanna who was the magistrate at the time and which explains the causes of the delay in the case -
